Dean Penrose

Reading the evening
Standard last night rang a bell so loudly that I feel I must write to ask how you all are?
1938/9 at the Mansel House when you were doing on research on the crowns of the boys' heads. What good years those were.

If you can find time
we would like to hear
the family news.

My two sisters and I retired down here in 1952 and I am glad to say that we keep
family busy.

Yours Sincerely,
Harold Layton
